

Toyota Kenya Limited

Anti-bribery and Anti-corruption Policy.

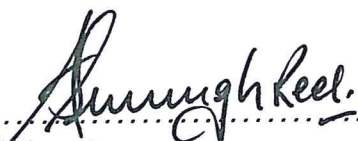

Toyota Kenya Limited is a member of the CFAO Group under the bigger umbrella of Toyota Tsusho Corporation. We ascribe to the group Global Code of Conduct and Ethics and the Anti-bribery and Corruption policy and procedures.

Toyota Kenya is fully committed to maintaining ethical behavior in its relationships with its various stakeholders; to its customers, suppliers, dealers, Toyota Kenya Authorized service centers, business agents, the government and the community.

We have Zero tolerance against corruption, influence peddling or any associated behaviour. Toyota Kenya Ltd staff and other stakeholders shall not engage in corrupt, unethical dealings, such as gifts and hospitality solicitation, influence peddling, conflict of interest or any form of concealed corrupt dealing such as unjustifiable sponsorship, unscrupulous offshore payments and un-procedural payments to third parties on behalf of the principal, whether directly or indirectly.

We commit to comply with all applicable laws, including anti-corruption, competition and trade laws. We further commit to act with integrity, honesty and transparency and establish a relationship of trust between all our stakeholders.

Toyota Kenya Ltd remain committed to know the customers that we serve as well as other stakeholders that we entrust to act on our behalf and do business with. We strive to establish business relationship that are true and committed to our Global Code of Conduct and Ethics.

.....
Managing Director

"You Will Love

The TOYOTA KENYA Experience"